

I am E-mailing to voice my opposition to the aforementioned proposal to interfere with the State of Indiana's No Call List by imposing a weaker Federal statute. The Indiana No Call Statute has been a huge success. The number of unwanted phone calls has dropped significantly. I get almost none at this point in time. If a federal statute is enacted, it should be crafted so that it does not supercede existing state laws.